D. PREAMBLE:

Dividend is the payment made by a Company to its shareholders, in the form of distribution of its profits. The profits earned by the Company can either be retained in business or utilized for acquisitions, expansion or diversification, or it can be distributed to the shareholders. The Company may choose to retain a part of its profits and distribute the balance among its shareholders as a Dividend. This Policy aims to reconcile between all these needs.

The Policy establishes the principles to ascertain amounts that can be distributed to shareholders as Dividend by the Company as well as enable the Company strike balance between pay-out and retained earnings, in order to address future needs of the Company. It lays down various parameters which shall be considered by the Board of Directors of the Company before recommendation/declaration of Dividend to its shareholders.

E. CATEGORY OF DIVIDENDS

The provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, as amended ("Companies Act") provide for two forms of Dividend i.e., Interim & Final. The Board of Directors shall have the power to recommend final dividend to the shareholders for their approval in the general meeting of the Company. The Board of Directors shall have the absolute power to declare interim dividends during the financial year, as and when they consider it fit.

i. Final Dividend

The Board of Directors of the Company has the power to recommend the payment of a Final Dividend to the shareholders in a general meeting, which shall be paid once for the financial year after the annual accounts is prepared. The declaration and payment of such Final dividend shall be subject to the approval of shareholders of the Company and shall be included in the ordinary business items that are required to be transacted at the Annual General Meeting.

ii. Interim Dividend

The Board of Directors of the Company, in accordance with Articles of Association of the Company, can declare an interim dividend during any current financial year, as and when considered appropriate, in line with this policy. Normally, the Board could consider declaring an interim dividend after finalization of quarterly (or half yearly) financial accounts.

F. DECLARATION AND PAYMENT OF DIVIDEND
